MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the celebration of World Healthcare Worker Week was first observed in 2013 recognizing the service & immense contributions of healthcare workers to our society throughout our world; &

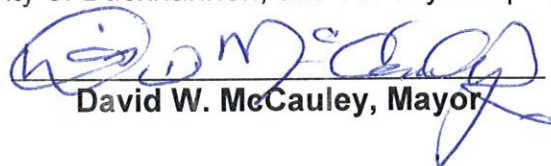

WHEREAS, during this now eighth annual celebration to be celebrated from April 5 through April 11, 2020, we should all of be especially mindful & appreciative of the heroism evidenced by our healthcare workers who currently are our frontline warriors battling every day to help protect us all from the ravages of the covid-19 virus & this global pandemic while offering us professional & compassionate care & treatment; &

WHEREAS, our Buckhannon-Upshur healthcare workers deserve our highest recognition & commendation for their gallant service to our community; &

WHEREAS, all of the employees of St. Joseph's Hospital/WVU Medicine, Community Care, & Davis Health System, together with all healthcare workers employed in our B-U community by private physicians' offices, nursing homes, hospice facilities, home healthcare providers, & school nurses- collectively offer us competent reassurance during this critical time that we all are in excellent & caring hands.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DAVID W. McCAULEY, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF BUCKHANNON, pursuant to the power & authority duly vested in me, do hereby proclaim the week of Sunday, April 5 through Saturday, April 11, 2020, to be WORLD HEALTHCARE WORKER WEEK throughout Buckhannon. I further urge all of our residents to be mindful of the incredible contributions & selfless service to our community of our healthcare workers during this anxious & trying time, & I encourage all of our residents to make it a point this week to seek out our healthcare providers & workers & to thank each of them for all that they do for us every day.

Given under my hand & the official seal of
The City of Buckhannon, this 5th day of April, 2020

David W. McCauley, Mayor
