RE: Stockert Youth & Community Center Capital Campaign - gift

Dear Council members:

Greetings again! I am beyond pleased to learn of our City recently securing the Knights of Pythias property that abuts our current SYCC building. Some will recall my years of wrangling in effort to secure it. Good job!

Of course it was critical to secure the land upon which our new Stockert building ultimately will come to be situated. I hope that best efforts now will prove forthcoming to secure the Catherine Cuppari property that is located adjacent to the former Knights of Pythias property.

I want to show my continued support of this amazing project while also honoring my seven grandchildren. I've nearly completed the fifth thousand dollar installment to help out with seed money for our project. Keep up the great work!

Our children, and indeed our entire community- continue to count on us. Let's continue to work hard together to figure out a way to build our awesome new building.

If there is anything else I can do to further help you facilitate exploring and realizing the necessary funding to break ground, please let me know. We can do this!

Very truly yours,

() The land

David W. McCauley

G. Strategic Issues for discussion and vote:

G.1 Continued Discussion Multi-Purpose Building/Gym-Building Options/Cost/Envision: The Mayor discussed the potential purchase of additional property to be used for the new SYCC building. He then recognized Michael Mills, Mills Group LLC, to discuss the needs and desired components in the design of the new SYCC building. Mr. Mills was most interested in the programmatic aspects of the new building. A full and in-depth discussion of all aspects including gym seating, locker rooms, multi-purpose rooms, etc., took place. Joy Hollen also provided visuals of the floodplain area and the group had a discussion about the placement of the building, access roads, etc. Melissa Franke noted that the building could be considered for disaster housing. Mr. Mills will have initial plans for our review during the January meeting.
